Location

Set just to the south of Redhill this property retains easy access to the amenities of both nearby towns of Redhill and Reigate. Redhill also has a broad range of shops within the centre of town including the large Sainsburys supermarket and the Belfry shopping centre, in addition to The Light, the new entertainment venue. Both Redhill station and Earslwood provide train connections to London Gatwick and the South coast. Earslwood station is only 0.7 miles (approx) away on foot.

Reigate provides a comprehensive range of shops and boutiques. There are also a good number of restaurants, cafes and coffee shops including Costa and Café Nero. Local restaurants include Pizza Express, Wagamama's, Cote and Bills as well as several independents.

The M25 is accessible at either Junction 8, at the top of Reigate Hill, or junction 6 at Godstone - giving access to the wider motorway network as well as Gatwick and Heathrow. The Channel Tunnel is within a 90 minute drive.
