The Property

106 Gloucester Road is a splendid Grade II Listed house with an abundance of charm and character around every corner. Over the last 18 years of residency, the present owners have made various upgrades to the property including a rear extension creating a lovely open plan kitchen. The accommodations spans over three floors extending in all to 1,145 sq.ft. The house is believed to date back to 1801 and was formerly a shop.

The ground floor opens to an internal porch leading to the living room. The living room has excellent ceiling height and features a cosy wood-burning stove which has a rotating mechanism allowing it to be enjoyed as an open fire too. The dining room is now open plan to the kitchen which is filled with natural light through a glazed roof and bi-fold doors. The kitchen is well-fitted with a breakfast bar peninsula and the charming original well has been retained sealed with a glass top.

Adjoining the kitchen there is a large larder. On the first floor, there are two double bedrooms and a bathroom fitted with a Japanese style bath with a rainfall showerhead above. The top floor offers a third double bedroom plus an en-suite wet room.

A delightful south-westerly garden accompanies the house positioned at the rear and accessed by steps up. The garden has a great degree of privacy and is larger than expected. An enchanting arched walkway of apple and pear trees leads to the top patio terrace beside a vegetable garden. A useful passageway shared with the neighbour is located to the side of the house and provides access to the garden as well as a bin storage area. There are plenty of on street parking options in the local vicinity as well as public car parks.
