General Description

Smiths Property Experts are favoured with instruction to market this exclusive and exciting development of five bespoke family homes in the charming and rural village of Pinwall. The site, which was historically a well-known local pub, is being converted into residential detached properties. The development will consist of four exceptional new homes as well as the sympathetic conversion of the original pub building. Each property will come with private parking, carports, gardens, and beautiful views of the surrounding countryside.

Specification

The properties offer generous living space and impressive ECO credentials, including Air Source heating, underfloor heating throughout, solar panels, MVHR air recirculation and a rainwater harvesting system. There is also a provision for a battery store should a purchaser wish to add one.

Location

Pinwall is a charming rural village situated close to the desirable areas of Sheepy Magna, Twycross and Market Bosworth, as well as the market town of Atherstone. The village boasts excellent transportation links to nearby cities like Birmingham, Derby, Nottingham, and Leicester, with Atherstone station just 2 miles away offering a direct line to London St Pancras. Additionally, Birmingham and East Midlands airports are conveniently located within 20-25 miles. The local area offers a fantastic selection of state and independent schools.
