Location

The Blyth Road Industrial Estate lies on the southern outskirts of Halesworth which is a well served market town just 4 miles from the A12 trunk road linking Great Yarmouth to the north and Ipswich and London to the south. Lowestoft is about 15 miles to the south-west and the popular traditional seaside town of Southwold is 7 miles to the west. Halesworth has a pedestrianised shopping centre and a railway station with services via the East Suffolk Ipswich-Lowestoft railway line to Ipswich and onto London's Liverpool Street Station.

Description

Blyth Road provides a mix of quasi-retail and commercial users and is the most modern commercial base in the town. The property adjoins Eurocell and is close to Kers Lake Construction.

The premises comprises a modern steel frame and brickblock unit with profile steel clad upper parts with clear space 11' (3.35m) to eaves, with fitted offices, kitchen and Male and Female WCs. There is also private external parking and rear loading via roller shutter loading door.

The Accommodation

The Accommodation extends to around 187 sqm (2,011 sq ft). Gross internal floor area.

Services

The property is served by mains water and drainage. There is also three phase electricity. There is a repair and maintenance contribution of 12.5% in addition to the guide rental.

Planning

The property has previously been used for Class E, B2 and B8 uses. Other uses may be available subject to checking with East Suffolk Council.

VAT

VAT is payable on the rent.

Business Rates

Rateable Value £8,200

Qualifying occupiers may be eligible for small business rates relief which can reduce rates payable by up to 100% for certain properties with low rateable values. Further information available from East Suffolk Council.
