Location

Woodbridge is probably best known for its outstanding riverside setting, but also offers a good choice of schooling in both the state and private sectors and a wide variety of shops and restaurants. Recreational facilities include sailing on the River Deben, a number of well regarded local golf clubs, including Woodbridge Golf Club, which was founded in 1893, a cinema, as well as a wonderful network of footpaths. Woodbridge also benefits from rail links to Ipswich, where Inter City rail services to London's Liverpool Street station take just over the hour.

The popular Heritage Coastline destinations of Orford and Aldeburgh are approximately 10 miles and 15 miles respectively. The County Town of Ipswich is approximately 10 miles to the south-west. The A12 trunk road, which links the north and the south of the county, is also a short distance to the west.

Description

The premises comprise a ground floor retail unit, together with residential upper parts which were sold on a long leasehold in 1987. The building is Grade II Listed.

The ground floor retail unit is currently used as a hair dressing salon by the Seller and trades as 'Just Hair'. The retail unit is to be sold with vacant possession and could be utilised by owner occupiers for their own business or let out to generate an income for prospective investment purchasers.

The ground floor accommodation extends to approximately 722 sq feet (67 sqm) and comprises a spacious retail area, rear office, kitchen, laundry room, storage and wc.

Tenure

The residential upper part known as Pickwick House, 1A Angel Lane has been sold on a long lease of 999 years at a fixed ground rent of £30.00 and we have not inspected this part of the property, although it is believed to comprise a period, self contained flat with rear access and exclusive use of the rear courtyard and car parking, accessed off Angel Lane.

Pickwick House is to be used for residential purposes and the tenant is to keep in good and substantial repair and condition, including redecorating the entire property. There are various provision for the common parts to be shared by a fair proportion with the Landlord. The landlord also insures the property and recovers the appropriate part of insurance premium from the head leasee. In addition there is a Deed dated 24th May 1991 which includes some additional land and changes the definition of the residential property to include part ground, first and second floors. Copies of these documents are available upon request.
