Location

Stone Cottage is set along Low Road, in the charming village of Eyke. Eyke is an attractive village benefitting from a church and primary school, with the award winning restaurant, The Unruly Pig, lying just 1½ miles away. The Heritage Coast is easily accessible, with the towns and villages of Thorpeness, Orford, Southwold and Aldeburgh all within easy reach. The village is also only a short distance from Rendlesham Forest which offers walks and cycling. The popular market town of Woodbridge is approximately 4 miles from Eyke and has further schooling in both the state and private sectors. The town has excellent shopping, business and recreational facilities, with a railway offering direct services to London's Liverpool Street.

Description

Stone Cottage comprises a charming, brick and flint, detached two bedroom cottage in a quiet semi-rural location on the edge of the well regarded village of Eyke. The cottage presents well throughout, with original Suffolk pamment flooring on the ground floor, a lovely sitting room with woodburning stove, a well fitted kitchen/breakfast room and ground floor shower room. On the first floor there is a landing bedroom, double bedroom and bathroom. Outside Stone Cottage benefits from its own carparking space together with a west facing garden at the rear which includes a generous patio area and well stocked, mature border beyond.
