Location

Combe Martin is a bustling seaside village of around 2,600 which boasts a variety of pubs and shops, including a Co-op. The coast is perfect for swimming, rock pooling, sailing and fishing excursions, and Exmoor National Park provides endless opportunities to get out for a ramble. The current owners are fond of the Pyne Arms East Down for a meal, nearby Holdstone Down for a ride, Arlington Court on Exmoor for a walk and Combe Martin Beaches for a swim. There is an Ofsted-rated 'Good' primary school in the village, a C of E secondary in nearby Ilfracombe and the independent West Buckland School in Barnstaple.

Accommodation

The kitchen / family room extension is outstanding and comprises a vaulted ceiling with impressive triangular windows at the gable end, large kitchen island with breakfast bar and bi-fold doors leading onto the patio. This room is the heart of the home and can bring the outdoors in on a warm summer day or provide a cosy place next to the double sided gas fireplace on cooler winter days. The dining room is adjacent to the kitchen / family room and has glazed french doors leading onto the patio, and it also benefits from the double sided fireplace - perfect for large gatherings around the dining table. Also downstairs are two double bedrooms, one with a large bay window providing lovely natural light and the other currently being utilised as an office, along with the large utility room that also incorporates a shower and WC.

Upstairs are the three remaining double bedrooms, all well proportioned and one of which again has an expansive bay window, along with the quirky family bathroom with gable dormer window and two velux windows.
