The Property

Situated at the end of a quiet cul de sac this spacious four bedroom home sits on a good size plot with private rear gardens enjoying a southerly aspect. At the far end is a block built summerhouse which could be used as a home office or gym. There is a large garage workshop and private drive for parking. The house has benefitted from a good degree of updating and modernisation, and is well presented throughout. The windows and doors are double glazed and there is oil fired central heating.

Location

The Village of Dousland situated just outside Dartmoor National Park but within easy access of open moorland and also Burrator reservoir which is popular with walkers and cyclists. The neighbouring village of Yelverton offers a wide range of local amenities including doctors, Co-op super market, primary school and public houses as well as a variety of other local shops and a golf club. The nearby town of Tavistock and the maritime city of Plymouth are both easily accessible by car or bus.

Accommodation

Once through the front door, a porch leads into a roomy hallway off which is a generous sitting room and separate dining room. This in turn leads into a conservatory overlooking the rear gardens. There is a spacious modern kitchen with further breakfast room and cloakroom/WC. On the first floor are four generous bedrooms, the principal bedroom having its own en-suite bathroom. The internal size and flow of the accommodation are very much not as one would expect pulling up to the front of the property and we highly recommend an internal inspection to fully appreciate how much is on offer. There is an attached garage/workshop which has a boiler and to the rear of this, is a separate utility room with plumbing for washing machine and space for tumble dryer, as well as plenty of storage making this a great drying room. A further building serves as a useful store and houses the oil tank.
