27 Staddon Road

Occupying a much sought-after position with views over the estuary towards Tapeley Park, this individual split-level residence offers an adaptable lifestyle opportunity in the charming fishing village of Appledore. Just a short walk from Appledore Quay, and everything the village has to offer, this modern semi-detached chalet bungalow has been much improved by the current owners. Boasting well-planned and flexible accommodation, along with low-maintenance gardens to the front and rear, off-road parking and a garage - a rare commodity in the village - this home is perfect for those seeking an easy to run home for full time occupation, or an impressive holiday retreat close to the idyllic North Devon coast.

Nestled along the estuary of the River Torridge, Appledore exudes quintessential charm with its narrow streets, colourful fishermen's cottages, and panoramic views of the rugged North Devon coastline. This picturesque village, now arguably one of North Devon's most sought-after coastal locations, is steeped in maritime heritage and boasts a rich history of shipbuilding and fishing, evident in its bustling quayside adorned with cafés, galleries, award-winning restaurants and the pedestrian ferry to Instow in the summer months. The village also holds a number of events throughout the year including the Arts & Crafts festival and internationally renowned Book Festival. Residents and visitors can simply soak in the atmosphere of this idyllic coastal retreat. With stunning coastal walks, panoramic views, and a vibrant atmosphere, Appledore is one of North Devon's choice coastal locations along with the nearby villages of Westward Ho!, with its glorious sandy beach, and Instow, with a riverside beach, popular with families and dog walkers alike.

The port town of Bideford provides a wider range of facilities including a number of locally owned and operated shops and bistros, banks, a post office, secondary schooling and supermarket shopping. There is access to the Tarka Trail, perfect for walkers and cyclists, connecting from Torrington to Barnstaple and beyond. From here, the A39 provides a convenient route to Barnstaple, with High Street shopping and the Tarka rail line to Exeter in the South. The A39 links up with the A361 to Tiverton, where there is a direct rail connection to London Paddington. To the West of Bideford, and further along the A39 is Bude, the gateway to the North Cornwall coast.
